

Re-Imagine La Junta Economic Development Committee Recommendations

These are the recommendations to City Council that we talked about at the 3rd meeting of three by the group.

The following was in general the three top items although the wording could not be agreed upon by all.

City Council needs to make clear to the public that the primary concern for Economic Development is the creation and retention of primary jobs.

Publish and announce at City Council the accomplishments and efforts of Economic Development to provide to the Council and public a quantitative value or accounting for the expense of the program.

Educate the public and service community on The activities and highlights of La Junta In communicating with outside visitors and inquiries.

These are in response to the things that the people said were most important on the survey and the Public meeting.
